

Ministry/Service Opening:

LIFE GROUP FACILITATOR

Focus Area: “Single Mothers Living the Life”

[This is a temporary/part-time contracted position lasting Aug – Nov, 2019]

Ministry Mission

Our aim is to positively impact and empower all lives through the limitless transforming power, good news and love of Christ. We are a faith community called to exemplify and share that Christ's love intervenes and is purposed for all. To wit, our mission is “Love intervening for everyone.”

“Single Mothers Living the Life” Group Facilitator Job Description

This group is open to all single mothers, with a primary focus on single teenage mothers and/or single mothers under the age of 30.

Group Scope

This group has been formed to support young single mothers pursuing the abundant life in Christ without regard or submission to any negative environments and contexts from which they may originate or presently find themselves. There will be prayer, meditation, formative discussions and other spiritually and emotionally supportive activities promoting greater success in their life responsibilities, pursuits and challenges as single mothers living abundantly in Christ. The group will consist of 5 to 7 people (max.)

Qualifications/Training

- Personal relationship with Christ
- Possess a heart for the Christ willed success and/or personal and professional ministry experience with focus groups.
- Ability to demonstrate personal and professional integrity by abiding by the code of ethics that suppresses the disclosure of any confidential information about group members or any discussions outside the group session.
- Possess past and present relatability, learnings, and life application.
- Able to attend (2) mandatory two-hour Facilitator training sessions in July, 2019.

Responsibilities

- Demonstrate satisfactory communication, listening and social skills.
- Facilitate a group dynamic that lends itself to group members encouraging one another towards wholeness and abundant living in Christ.

- Facilitate an atmosphere that encourages group members to journey together in reimagining their fragile family structure as healthy and strong in God's love.
- Be able to enable participative discussions and learning among group members, allowing them to express and present different opinions while maintaining a respectful environment.
- Engage in and encourage prayer and meditation during group sessions.
- Engage a variety of strategies to keep the process structured without interfering with group productivity.
- Hold scheduled group meetings every other week beginning August through November, 2019 (8-10 sessions)
- Adequately prepare and present a clear and concise personal, prayerful strategy and plan for the aforementioned sessions.
- Present a monthly general report to the Pastor summarizing group content and dynamics without compromising desired member anonymity or confidential information. Reports should not be less than one paragraph, but not more than one page.
- Communicate with the Pastor on a regular basis via email
- Ability to facilitate the group as a participant.

Educational Background

- Related education and/or professional experience desired, but not required.
- Basic computer proficiency.
- Demonstrate basic, proficient writing skills.

Time and Place

- Groups meet at various locations in greater Los Angeles and surrounding areas.
- Commitment is 60 to 90 minutes per group session and approximately one hour outside of the group for administrative tasks and communication with the Pastor.
- Meetings may be held on weekends, evenings, or as determined by the Pastor.
