

Ministry/Service Opening:

LIFE GROUP FACILITATOR

Focus Area: “The Shop – Urban Young Men Engage Real Talk...”

[This is a temporary/part-time contracted position lasting Aug – Nov, 2019]

Ministry Mission

Our aim is to positively impact and empower all lives through the limitless transforming power, good news and love of Christ. We are a faith community called to exemplify and share that Christ's love intervenes and is purposed for all. To wit, our mission is “Love intervening for everyone.”

“The Shop” Group Facilitator Job Description

Urban young men engage real talk that fosters focused, strong, and God-breathed decision-making for life.

Group Scope

This group is for young urban area males aged 16 to 25. In the light of Christ, cultural contexts, community, scripture and prayer, these young men are encouraged to share their context, challenges, distractions and dreams in an unfiltered, formative and confidential group environment. Through facilitated, real and at times raw discussion, participants will grow and learn to focus and rely on Christ in developing and pursuing their dreams—which includes overcoming past mistakes, fear of failure, distractions, and other challenges. The group will consist of 5 to 12 people (max.)

Qualifications/Training

- Personal relationship with Christ
- Possess a heart for the Christ-willed success and/or personal and professional ministry experience with focus groups.
- Ability to demonstrate personal and professional integrity by abiding by the code of ethics that suppresses the disclosure of any confidential information about group members or any discussions outside the group session.
- Possess past and present reliability, learnings, and life application.
- Able to attend (2) mandatory two-hour Facilitator training sessions in July, 2019.

Responsibilities

- Demonstrate satisfactory communication, listening and social skills.

- Participate in discussions to help promote greater faith, practical Christ reliance and success in making strong, focused decisions for the future.
- Be able to enable participative discussions and learning among group members, allowing them to express and present different opinions while maintaining a respectful environment.
- Engage a variety of strategies to keep the process structured without interfering with group productivity.
- Hold scheduled group meetings every other week beginning August through November, 2019 (8-10 sessions)
- Adequately prepare and present a clear and concise personal, prayerful strategy and plan for the aforementioned sessions.
- Present a monthly general report to the Pastor summarizing group content and dynamics without compromising desired member anonymity or confidential information. Reports should not be less than one paragraph, but not more than one page.
- Communicate with the Pastor on a regular basis via email
- Ability to facilitate the group as a participant.

Educational Background

- Related education and/or professional experience desired, but not required.
- Basic computer proficiency.
- Demonstrate basic, proficient writing skills.

Time and Place

- Groups meet at various locations in greater Los Angeles and surrounding areas.
- Commitment is 60 to 90 minutes per group session and approximately one hour outside of the group for administrative tasks and communication with the Pastor.
- Meetings may be held on weekends, evenings, or as determined by the Pastor.
